REMEMBRANCE DAY

The Remembrance Day is celebrated every year on 11th of November at 11 PM. This day is celebrated in memory of all the army forces who died in the First World War. On this day, many people wear Poppies on their clothes and is also called as Poppy day.

All Canadians are encouraged to observe a moment of silence to mark the sacrifice of the many who have fallen in the service of their country, and to acknowledge the courage of those who still serve.

Let us pray for peace, and consider our contribution as individuals, community and nation to bring God's peace to the world.

In Flanders Fields
John McCrae, 1872 - 1918

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place, and in the sky,
The larks, still bravely singing, fly,
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the dead; short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe!
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high!
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.
