TRINITY SUNDAY

Every time we make the sign of the Cross we make an invocation of the Holy Trinity: “In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.” We believe in a Triune God, that is, in a God who is one God in three Persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The Father is not the Son and not the Holy Spirit. The Son is not the Father and not the Holy Spirit. They are unique from each other and different from each other. We cannot fully grasp the mystery. But why do we believe it? Because Jesus Christ himself, the Son of God made man, has revealed it. He speaks of the Father and the Holy Spirit as different from him, yet there is no sign of conflict or competition among them. They move differently, yet they act as one.
